

Experienced Agricultural Dealership Staff Needed

Cornish's is a leading agricultural machinery dealer with 7 branches across rural NSW with the major franchise being Case IH. The business has seen growth over the past 12 months and is planned to grow further over the coming years. As a result we are seeking experienced staff to assist with this growth. We have a need for experienced staff in all branches across the range of positions we have.

As a group Cornish's has approximately 70 staff with many years of experience. The management group is keen to bring in more experience and enthusiasm to drive further sales and service.
